Students urged to give before they go